

The Students' Association of Natural Science, Uppsala
Geological Division

(Geologiska sektionen av Naturvetenskapliga studentsällskapet i Uppsala)

Meeting January 19, 1956.

13 persons present.

Dr. G. STÅLHÖS summarized his licentiate thesis in a lecture entitled "Stratigraphy and tectonics of the Caledonian borderland in the Hede region, province of Härjedalen".

Meeting February 10, 1956.

17 persons present.

Lecture by Mr. B. LINDQVIST: "The influence of different salt solutions on feldspars".

Meeting February 23, 1956.

8 persons present.

Lecture by Mrs. EBBA HULT DE GEER: "New contributions to the chronology of the Scandinavian deglaciation".

Meeting March 23, 1956.

16 persons present.

Dr. B. JÄRNEFORS read a forthcoming paper on "The ice recession in the Uppsala region and the question of the origin of the spotted zone".

Meeting April 20, 1956.

23 persons present.

Lecture by Professor E. NORIN: "The sequence of sediments in the Tyrrhenian Sea and the volcanism in its border areas".

Meeting October 30, 1956.

30 persons present.

In celebration of the "Nordens dag" the following lectures were given by guests from Oslo:

Dr. CHR. OFTEDAHL: "The Permian volcanism in the Oslo region".

Dr. G. HENNINGSMOEN: "The conditions in Scandinavia and adjacent areas at the end of the Cambrian and the beginning of the Ordovician".